

Andrei Ivascu

16 years, violin

Born in Madrid on 4-th August, 2007

When he was nine years old he was admitted at the Amanuel Professional Music Conservatory in Madrid studying violin with the professors Manuel Suarez Trigal and David Santacecilia.

He is currently studying at Padre Antonio Soler Integrated Professional Music Conservatory in San Lorenzo del Escorial with Miriam Hontana

He expands his training by participating in masterclasses given by: Alexander Detisov, Rudens Turku, Carole Petitdemange, Farid Fasla, Kamran Omarli, Elena Pochedkina, Mikhail Pochedkin, Arndt Auhagen, Caroline Strumphler, Maximilian Lohse, Pablo Quintanilla and Juan Mira and played under the baton of great orchestra' s directors such as Gustavo Gimeno, George Jackson, Borja Quintas, Andrés Salado, Rubén Gimeno, Anne Marie North, Lars Corijn and Juan Manuel Alonso.

He has played with distinguished orchestras in other european countries such as the Netherlands, Germany or Belgium and in very famous halls for instance Het Concertgebouw (Amsterdam), Elbphilharmonie (Hamburg), National Auditorium (Madrid).

Principal orchestras are: Concertgebouworkest Young 2022 (RCO Young), Mahler Student Festival Orchestra (MSFO), World Youth Day Orchestra (JMJ), Young Orchestra of Madrid (JORCAM) and others.

3rd prize at Hedwig Prize International Violin Competition, Poland