Violin

Hetman Roksoliana was born in Lviv into a family of musicians. Since childhood, she was surrounded by music, and her passion for the violin was passed on to her by her older sister, who is also a violinist. At the age of 6, Roksoliana began learning to play the violin. First, she studied at Lviv State School of Arts No. 11 in the class of teacher Natalia Kriachenko. From the very first years of her studies, Roksoliana demonstrated her talent and perseverance, and won many national and international competitions.

Since the 7th grade, she has been studying at the Solomiya Krushelnytska Lviv State Music Lyceum in the class of Lidia Futorska. At the moment, she continues her studies with Mariia Hereha. Roksoliana performed as a soloist with the Kyiv Symphony Orchestra of Radio and Television and on the stage of the Lviv National Philharmonic with the orchestra. She received 1st prize at the international Hedwig Prize competition in Poland. Roksoliana, together with the students of the Music Lyceum, traveled to Spain, Germany and Poland with a concert activity.
